Carnival Ball Marked By Double Coronation

by JOE O'CONNELL

Capping the Winter Carnival Weekend was the semi-formal ball, last Friday night. At this time, the enchanting Queen of the Carnival was publicly honored in Austin Hall by His Excellency, Gov. Ernest W. Gibson. The lovely Dottie Pratley, from Greenwich, Conn., was the recipient of the crown so graciously bestowed by Vermont's highest official.

Miss Pratley had as her escort, Mr. Barney Thompson also of Greenwich. After receiving their regal crowns, the couple ascended the makeshift throne, there to be photographed with the attendant princesses.

Another equally notable coronation took place soon after. This featured Father Lyons placing a golden crown on the head of Mrs. Ernest Gibson, the first Lady of the Green Mountain State. Father cited Gov. and Mrs. Gibson for attending and aiding the committees in making the Carnival the huge success that it was.

The Coronation proceedings took place during the intermission of the dance, which dance, by the way, was considered a supreme delight by all who attended. The famed Dartmouth Barbary Coast rhythm makers supplied a varied assortment of waltzes, rhumbas and

by JOHN MURPHY

The fallen Knight of St. James Hall is beginning to melt now, but he will linger long in the memory of the boys there.

"Moose" Whelan, godfather of the prize winning statue, considers it "pure art" and nothing else. The boys from St. James got started late but as Moose said, "all it took was a leader." With Ted Burzenski and Bob Harrington as assistants, the work moved right along. Ray Howland, Joe Fogarty, Vin McAuliffe, and many others were among those who helped to bring St. James the glory.

Protest arose from members of the opposition. They claimed that Bob Harrington was imported

Charlie and 'Hack' Stage Swell Dance

With soft record music filling the room and green and gold spots sparkling on the walls, a hundred and eighty happy couples celebrated last Saturday's victory at the Outing Club's informal dance and party at Austin Hall.

The affair, staged by Charlie Guiland and Warren 'Hack' Hokenos, was one of the most successful ever run.

Dancing began immediately after the basketball victory with a special bus waiting at the Auditorium to hustle the Mikemen and Mikewomen out to Austin Hall.

Although the "name bands," advertised for the evening never showed up, no one seemed to miss them. The bands were to have appeared on Movie shorts especially designed for dancing. Instead the movie company, for reasons best known to itself, sent films of a barber shop quartet which was not particularly danceable and therefore were not used.

The Carnival spirit of the evening was further enhanced at 11:30 when the dancers were showered with balloons and confetti. Among those scrambling after the balloons were Jack Fadden, Don Beauchemin, Ted Burzenski and John Rachel.

After the balloons there was a short community sing, followed by more dancing.

A few minutes before 12, an anonymous voice which sounded very much like Art Fraser, interrupted the music to say: "You've got 10 minutes left, make them good."

Those present seemed to be doing just that.

Michaelmen At Hub Congress

by BUCK McMAHON

All Michaelmen as students at a Catholic college are members of the National Federation of Catholic College Students. Therefore, it will be of interest that the Third Regional Congress of the NFCCS is to be held in Boston on April 29, 30 and May 1.

The plans and arrangements for this Congress were formulated at the Regional Council meeting in Boston last month.

St. Michael's sent a score of students to the Congress last year under the leadership of Clem Ferris. This year Clem is the Regional Treasurer. Hundreds of interested Catholic college students from all the Catholic colleges in New England attended the Congress. This year it is earnestly hoped that the number of attending students will be even greater.

The group from here was very active at the various discussion panels of the Congress and scored some marked impressions through their participation. All the Michaelmen who made the trip spoke highly of the work being done by the NFCCS and were greatly impressed by the Congress.

In an effort to draw Catholic students more closely together in the common cause, this year's opening session on April 29 will be a joint meeting of the Newman Club Federation and the New England Regional NFCCS. This opening session will be held at the Hotel Bradford in Boston.

Every student here at St. Michael's is eligible to attend the Congress. The expense is not great and the cause a truly worthy one. More detailed information will be published in THE MICHAELMAN in the near future.

The Congress plan as formulated by the Regional Council is as follows:

THE PROGRAM

- Friday, April 29 -- Hotel Bradford
7:00 P.M. - Registration
8:15 P.M. - Address of Welcome by NFCCS President
Glee Club Selections
Newman Club College Symposium
a. Joint Committee For Student Action
b. Newman Club Federation
c. National Federation of Catholic College Students
Address by Most Rev. Richard J. Cushing, D.D., Archbishop of Boston
10:30 P.M. - Informal Dance
Council Meeting for Delegates
Nomination Committee meeting

Mikemen Condemn Phony Trial

by BOB FLANAGAN

Catholic College students have finally taken some definite action against their enemy. After too many months of bulling about "putting the commies in their place," St. Michael's students this week did something about it.

Five hundred of them attended a mass meeting in Austin Hall Wednesday, called by the Sodality, NFCCS and Mission Crusade to protest the Hungarian government's trial of Cardinal Mindszenty. The action they took was in the form of signing their names to a form letter addressed to the President.

Regardless of the effectiveness of the letter it was significant in that it marked the first time here, and probably in the whole country that students, took action of their own accord.

Although school authorities cooperated to a great extent last week's meeting was in no way faculty-run. As a matter of fact classes were continued as usual which accounted for the absence from the meeting of some students.

Feature of the meeting was a fighting address by Father Hamel who scored the communists who have adopted the cry: Quis ut Stalinus, "Who is like Stalin?" Michaelmen, Father Hamel said, will stick to their motto Quis ut Deus, "Who is like God?"

In another point in his talk Father stated the Catholic philosophy on government. Man is not a machine, he is a human person, he said, and he does not exist for the state but rather the state exists for him.

ACT NOW

Father encouraged the students to act now scorning the prevailing method of "never yelling until the hurt is hurting us."

So effective was Father Hamel's talk that Father D'Agostino, scheduled to follow him on the platform, declined to speak. Instead he merely urged the students to sign the letters which had been prepared.

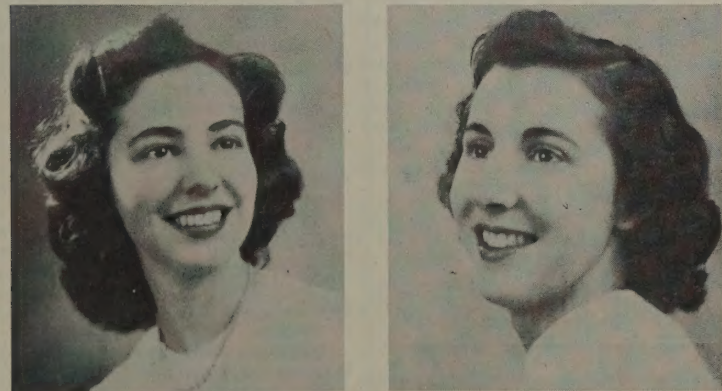

Also speakers at the meeting were Professor Holgate and Henry Thompson, the student chairman.

Holgate declared the letter was tantamount to a declaration of war. He finished by quoting Monsignor Fulton Sheen: "If it is treason to fight communism, let us all be traitors."

Thompson in closing the meeting said in substance, that it was sometimes necessary to begin growing up and it was good to see some of the other students were doing that.

Josef Cardinal Mindszenty

At this writing the world awaits punishment of Cardinal Mindszenty, Primate of Hungary, after conviction on obviously trumped-up charges. The charges include treason, spying, and black market dealings. The penalty to be imposed may be death.

Communist tactics, surpassing those of the Nazis, including great waves of propaganda have been employed. Cardinal Mindszenty as leader of 7,000,000 Catholics in Communist ridden Hungary is the natural and most logical Communist Public Enemy Number One.

Removing this obstacle is indeed a "blow to the West" and to the entire world, but, of course, is fortuitous to the "progress seeking" communists.

Cardinal Mindszenty's counterfeit trial represents one more diabolical plot to silence a last voice of freedom, to squelch the source which refuses to compromise on the fundamental rights of man and his Church.

Tons of propaganda have been circulated through communist organs; some of it accuses the Cardinal as being a reactionary, if not a Fascist, a notorious Anti-Semite. He is guilty of controlling millions of acres of land; he is an opponent of agrarian reform, as well as of separation of Church and State.

According to their press, the issue is not one of persecuting religion, but a justified and inevitable self-defense of democracy.

The facts still remain regardless of the communist "red-wash." The Church between 1921 and 1925, voluntarily parted with more than a fifth of all land held by Catholic bodies, and did not oppose the alienation of their remaining holdings if they would be compensated for, which they were not.

The income of the lands was chiefly devoted to charity and education. The Cardinal's assistance to Jews under the Nazi regime was a prime factor for a prison sentence.

Of the number of Hungarian schools, 45 percent were under religious direction. Of this number, 80 percent were Catholic. At this time the Reds forbid even voluntary donations for their maintenance, and thus, they cease to operate.

There are 65 daily papers and 144 weeklies which propagate the Red cause, while there is but one Church paper, and this a weekly with limited distribution, circulation and under rigid censorship.

We must be able to see through this phony trial of one man, a representative of the Catholic Church. The significance of the trial is obvious; it is a ruthless attack upon religious freedom and human rights.

During this "Black moment" we must not cease to continue our prayers as prescribed by the Bishops of the United States and the remainder of the Christian world.

CONGRATULATIONS CHORISTERS

by CHARLIE GUILL

Among the overwhelming success that St. Michael's has had in this past Winter Carnival, must be singled out the excellent job done by Mr. Burke and his Glee Club for starting off the Big Weekend with their very fine reception party.

Not only was it entertaining but rather tasty for those who indulged in the beautiful cake, donated by the Swanton Bakery for the occasion. Fine music, both for dancing and listening pleasure was afforded by the members of the Glee Club through the kind auspices of Marty Gleason.

Thus the Carnival started off with somewhat of a Bang and it was easy to see the apparent air of friendship and welcome existing throughout the hall.

The Outing Club offered sincere thanks to the Glee Club for a job well done and also to each and every one who in any way has helped to make this Winter Carnival a gigantic success!

HILL WIND

By Chub Helfrich
And George Lavallee

QUESTION: Do you think the Winter Weekend was a success and have you any suggestions that will make it an even more successful event in the future???

ANDY SCANLON Schenectady, N.Y.

The Winter Weekend was, so far, the best event of the year and Mr. Hannigan and the Outing Club deserve a lot of credit and thanks. Yet there was one point that I think should be remedied next year and that is the size of those in attendance. How about making it a weekend for an unlimited number of couples instead of the two hundred who were able to get tickets.

JOHN O'CONNELL Dorchester, Mass.

I think the Winter Weekend leaves a lot of room for improvement. Outside of the semi-formal and the regularly-scheduled basketball game, what did it offer? If anyone wants more see Gil Wood's column in the Feb. 6th Sunday News.

WILLIAM DILLON New York City

It surely was a great success but I think that in the future it would be fair if the academic office would either suspend classes or else the Winter Weekend.

GENE LEMAIRE St. Albans, Vt.

It was, on the whole, an overwhelming success and there is no denying that a good time was had by all. However, if this is to be an annual event then it would be wise for those in charge to do just a little more serious planning so that everything will go off as scheduled.

JAMES SCIARRINO Lawrence, Mass.

I think that the carnival did live up to my expectations but something should have been done about the Sunday afternoon blues, for instance a program should have been made for the non-skiers consisting of a sleigh ride or a tobogganing party.

ROBERT BATTLES Bronx, N.Y.

I am in agreement with the rest of the students when they say that the Weekend was a success but I hope that next year we shall have our own swing band playing at the dance and other campus occasions.

BARNEY THOMPSON Greenwich, Conn.

I wholeheartedly agree with the complete success of the Winter Weekend yet a fuller schedule should have been planned and included some mode of transportation after the dance for the students and dates, skating and tobogganing for non-skiers but then improvement comes with time.

Debaters Plan Trip, Take New Members

by CHUB HELFRICH

The Debating Club accepted twenty new members into its fold last Monday night at a meeting held in Aquinas Hall.

Tim Evatt was elected chairman and a committee was appointed to assist him in his duties as such.

Highlight of the meeting for the newly-accepted "Websters and Paines" was the planning for a Freshman-Novice Tournament, a novice being one who has not competed in an intercollegiate debate, and for two trips to be made in early Spring. On the trips the team will debate against Bates College at Maine, Boston College at Boston, Providence and Brown Colleges at Providence, Our Lady of the Elms, Amherst, Holy Cross, and Williams Colleges at Springfield, and the University of New Hampshire at Durham.

A debate has been scheduled for next week with Tom Flanagan opposing Tim Evatt. Also a tentative schedule was drawn up for an on-campus debate to be held on March 12th.

Teams participating in this tournament are: St. Michael's, Dartmouth, Middlebury, Champlain and the University of Vermont.

There will be an on-campus debate at Austin Hall on April 29th at which St. Michael's will play host to Amherst College.

The next meeting will be held at 4:00, Feb. 15, at Aquinas Hall in Room 70.

Campus Static

Well the carnival is over and the gloom is once again settling over the campus --- Could it be the results of mid-years? --- Maybe it's because the best girl has gone home -- Perhaps it is the thought that you may be the next to fall before the Ax of dismissal. Of course it could be any or all of these reasons, but we feel that this dark and ominous gloom has as its source those Michaelmen who, for some reason or other, failed to take in last week-end's carnival.

Cheer up guys, next year's will be bigger and better. However, it's going to be up to you to take advantage of it. For those who didn't attend, let's go back over a few of the highlights starting with the snow sculpturing which was won by St. James --- Do you suppose Fr. Paulin gave the boys a few lessons in carving out in the work shop --- wonder if he also shared in the prize. Next in line we find the reception that the Glee Club sponsored -- it was really great and just the thing to help everyone get together.

Among the outstanding features of Friday night's semi-formal were Art Fraser's terrific decorations (he's going to have to outdo himself for May 8th), the presence of Gov. Gibson, the music of the Barbary Coast Orchestra, and of course the coronation of Miss Dottie Pratley by His Excellency, and of Mrs. Gibson by Fr. Lyons. Saturday was loaded with excitement all the way highlighted by Jim Feloney's five goals against the Furlington All Stars, John Moran's fine exhibition of speed skating and the basketball team's spectacular victory over St. Anselm's with Ted Euzenski's 27 big points.

During our big week-end Bill Dillon changed his "status." Margie Loom of Valley Stream, Long Island, was the lucky girl. Mum is the word on the wedding. --- Tim Evatt found the Marriage course so interesting last year that he is back again --- Bob LaForge was a little late in meeting his girl for the week-end --- better late than never, Bob --- When are the girls in the office going to learn that you can't read through two sheets of paper --- O.K. maybe we do need a bigger bulletin board --- Jim Conboy and Red Moynahan had a little trouble with an odor in Red's car --- that Air-Wick is wonderful stuff, uh, Red --- We hear that Joe Centile is back on campus --- Joe says, "Glad to be back" --- It's good to see you up and around again Joe Mountain --- They tell us that Carl Zucknieovich has his own hair dresser --- has she started the Toni treatment yet, Carl --- Before they left for Dartmouth Friday night the orchestra stated that they had never seen so many beautiful women at a college dance before --- nice going, men --- The boys in the band also selected Bob Sullivan's date as their own queen --- you should have submitted her picture, Bob --- On behalf of the more than 150 guests who were so graciously entertained at the Delta Mu over the week-end, we wish to extend our appreciation --- it was really a good time as every one will agree -- Don Walsh was the perfect host -- how about another, Don ---

Shamrocks and Shillelaghs

Shamrocks to the Outing Club for the fine job they did for the college --- this ought to be an incentive to the other clubs on campus. What we need as far as campus clubs are concerned are more Clem Hamelles and Prof. Hannigans -- Another bunch of Irish symbols to the fellows that put so much time in on the snow sculptures, especially St. James -- And let's throw in another bunch for the weatherman who helped make the Carnival such a success.

Shillelaghs to the Michaelmen that booed the refs at the St. Anselm's game; we got a lot of breaks, remember --- and now the biggest stack of clubs handed out yet: -- To that smart Michaelman who stood up one of the Fanny Allen girls Friday night and then arrived at the semi-formal with another date ----- how low can one stoop, Van !!!

Ode to a Cat

by DON GIBBONS

The Hawk swooped down on the Purple Knight,
More ferocious than the Cat.
His talons bared and full of fight;
Prepared to drive him back.
The battle then was furious,
And felt in every sound.
To the Hawk it soon was obvious,
The Knight would not give ground.
From a point above the battle site,
The Cat did safely peer.
His eyes aglow with mounting fright,
His heart encased in fear.
For he must meet this Purple Knight,
And knew what was in store.
This was not the timid Knight
He vanquished once before.
Then the vicious battle ended;
A victory now complete.
The blow the gallant Knight had rendered,
Brought the Hawk defeat.
The mighty Cat crouched terrified,
At this appalling sight.
He quivered as he realized,
He too, must fight this Knight.

Knights In Daze With Busy Week

by BOB FLANAGAN

Fifty St. Michael's students will be taking part in seven different athletic events this week as the frosh and varsity basketball teams and the hockey and speed skating squads all swing into full action.

The granite state of New Hampshire is the scene of most of the Knights' action today. Down in Manchester, N.H., the basketball team will have its work cut out for it, attempting to repeat last Saturday's brilliant victory against a thoroughly aroused St. Anselm's team.

Meanwhile in Hanover this afternoon, the speed skaters intend to do their part in Dartmouth's Winter Carnival by bringing back some of the skating trophies.

This Wednesday two more tilts are scheduled.

In the afternoon, Bill Piscione's hockey squad meet U.V.M. on St. Michael's rink and at night Steve Guter's frosh trek down to Montpelier for another game with Vermont Junior College.

HOCKEY

Thursday the hockey team takes the ice at Middlebury against Duke Nelson's powerful Panthers. Finally, Friday and Saturday the basketball team ends the week with a two day trip to New Hampshire and AIC.

The Knights should be favored in Saturday night's AIC contest. The Yellowjackets, having one of their poorest years, lost last week to Lowell Textile whom the Knights routed in December.

Friday's UNH game is another story. Previous to last Saturday, the Wild Cats held the only decision over St. Anselm's Hawks. The Cats pinned the defeat on St. A's. about a month ago, in one of the best games ever seen in New Hampshire's home town of Durham.

Harry Young To Sub For Finn At Lowell

One out of three is a fair percentage for basketball shooting, a good one for batting averages and a terrific one for amateur boxing.

Three Mikemen, Jack Daly, Jerry Finn and Harry Young entered the Golden Gloves contest and one of them will be representing this state in the regionals at Lowell the twenty-first.

One of the trio --- Jolting (what else?) Jerry Finn, has the effect of a liquid Mickey Finn in either hand, is the state's 160-pound titlist. Finn blasted his way through three straight prelim, quarter-final and semi-final bouts into the finals -- where he had his easiest fight of the entire tourney.

His final foe, Harry Young, a more than capable brain scrambler and another St. Michael's warrior, bowed out when it was learned that he had sustained a badly bruised thumb in driving his semi-final foe into the canvas for his third knockout in as many fights. The fight would have been a natural. But those who were singing "We're Just Wild About Harry" will have their opportunity to cheer for Young when he represents Vermont in the Lowell, Mass., "Tournament of Champions."

Finn, by all rights, would have been the Green Mountain boy in the Lowell tourney in the 160 class. Finn is a law student, and with the second semester under way and the work getting tougher, Finn has decided to remain in school during the Tourney of Champs bouts in order to get his subject down pat. That's the law!

Young, however, is no slouch when it comes to dishing out a steady diet of rights and lefts. He was the only gladiator to win each of his three bouts by a knockout dosage.

Jack Daly, St. Michael's football star and Jack-of-all-trades, won his prelim in the 126 pound class, but was decider in a photo finish in his semi-final clash with the eventual titlist, Wendell Matotte of Barre.

REVIEW OF THE WEEK IN SPORTS

Burzenski Catches Fire As Knights Down Hawks

by WHIT BARTLETT

With Big Ted Burzenski leading the way with 27 points, the Purple Knights staged a great second half rally last Saturday to defeat a highly touted St. Anselm's five, 63 to 49.

The Hawks came to town sporting an offensive average of better than 75 points a game while the defensive minded Knights have been holding their opponents to 45 points a game.

It was clearly a triumph of defense over offense as the Knights forced the Hawks to slow down their fast break and play their type of ball game.

Two thousand spectators, which included many lovely Winter Carnival guests, saw the Purple Knights suddenly come to life in the second half after trailing the Hawks at the intermission 28-21. With George Kruse and Burzenski controlling the backboards and Jack Walsh, Billy Hart and Ed Markey showing a brilliant display of passing, the Knights went out in front 42-40 with 10 minutes to go on a basket by Hart.

Burzenski followed this with a tap in and Walsh and Hart sunk two-pointers, and St. Mike's was in front to stay.

At this point the Hawks' captain, Chuck Tobin, left the game via the foul route and two minutes later 6'6" Walt Bastin followed him. After this the Knights just built up their margin of victory.

TEDDY TOPS

Burzenski played a brilliant game against the Hawks both on the defense and offense. While netting himself 27 points he held Bastin to just 4 foul shots, a nice piece of work in any league. The rest of the boys did themselves proud too with Billy Hart netting 13 while playing the elusive Vin Martley, and Walsh and Markey each hitting for 8 while Kruse chipped in with 6 besides playing a good floor game.

Martley showed the way for St. Anselm's with 14 points and exhibited some fancy passing and floor work, while Tobin and Mike Hession had 12 and 10 points respectively on some nice one hand push shots.

Tonight the Knights hope to repeat at Manchester.

Moran Shines In Speed Skating Meet

Showing a smooth, powerful stride, John Moran, a freshman from Medford, Mass., dominated St. Michael's Winter Carnival Speed Skating meet last Saturday at Roosevelt Park.

Because the Dartmouth team was unable to appear, the meet was held as an intersquad competition by the St. Michael's team. Dartmouth, which was expected to provide the main competition, called St. Michael's coach, Vin Morin, early Saturday morning when it was found that it would be impossible for them to obtain transportation in time for the races.

The meet developed into a duel between Moran and Paul Morin, a junior from Burlington.

In both the 440 and mile, Moran and Morin finished one, two. Moran took the 220, and Morin the 880 with Bob Flynn of Schenectady, second in both events.

Best race of the afternoon was the 880 which found Moran, Flynn and Morin fighting it out until Moran slipped and fell about 20 yards from the finish line.

Coach Bill Piscione of St. Michael's hockey team was the starter. Other officials were: Don Maley, Milton Hard, William Hammond and Kenneth Kane. The Burlington Park department offered fine cooperation.

This weekend the skaters will journey to Hanover to compete in the Dartmouth Carnival.

Varsity and Frosh Win Two At Norwich

by WHIT BARTLETT

With roommates "Big" George Kruse and "Bigger" Teddy Burzenski leading the way, the St. Michael's cagers ran roughshod over the Norwich Mountaineers last Wednesday night at Northfield by a score of 83-52.

The Cadets made it a contest for just one period as nice shots by Buck Bovee and Chuck O'Connor kept Norwich in the game. The spacious Norwich court had the Purple baffled for awhile and the Cadets held a 15-13 lead at the end of the first quarter.

When the second quarter started the Knights made it plain that they had solved their problems and they started to click on all cylinders.

With Mike Ziter supplying the punch St. Mike's knotted the score at 25-25. Then Diz Dean dunked in a double decker and Willy Hart and Kruse followed with foul shots and the Purple was in front to stay. Markey, Hart, and Dean followed with baskets and the Knights left the floor at intermission, leading 35 to 25.

In the second half Burzenski started hitting with his hook shots and Kruse, Markey, Hart and Pat O'Doherty got hot to widen the margin of victory.

Roomies Burzenski and Kruse had 36 points between them, Ted getting 20 and George 16, to pace the Knights while O'Connor had 17 and Bovee 16 for Norwich.

In the preliminary game the St. Michael's Frosh waltzed to their 10th straight victory over the Norwich J.V.'s by a score of 71-24.

The Squires had too much power for the Junior Cadets as Jimmy Duffy and Joe Brunton paced the squad with 12 and 11 points respectively. Every man on the squad hit the scoring column in the rout.

Last week we reprinted in The Michaelman a poem entitled "Ode to the Purple" which appeared in the University of Vermont's Cynic the week following our meeting on the court. This column saw the poem long before it appeared in The Michaelman, but refrained from commenting upon it, because of the fear of having trouble with the censors.

Let us say here and now that the poem itself was good, and it would have been better if we on this side of the river were not on the receiving end of their almost insulting attempt to provoke a laugh. Yes sir, the one who wrote, plus the one who printed that little ditty is wasting his or her time in college. The person responsible should be writing for an outfit like the Chicago Tribune, which prints exactly what they think, with little or no regard for how many friends they have and keep.

The week after we humbled the high-strung Catamounts in a man's game called football, we could have very easily rubbed it in and rubbed it in good. Instead we let it go as a game played; something in the past. But what did their coach have to say? Quote "Fuzzy," "We don't mind losing to a good team, but when we kick one out the window, it hurts." Which all comes under the heading of good sportsmanship, like that poem that appeared in the Cynic.

It's about time those people over there stopped treating us like their poor cousins. In quite a few different ways, we could bring out facts and figures that would make them blink and look again.

However, this is the sport's page so let's stick to just that. The situation has changed considerably since the Catamounts took our measure January 12. Vermont hasn't got any worse, but they certainly haven't improved a great deal. They play their usual Neimann, Kotlarczyk and a prayer game every week, with pretty fair results. (I wonder what they are going to do over there when they finally lose about four of those grand old men, two years hence.)

St. Michael's however, has improved tremendously in the past few weeks, which may be shown by their victories over Clarkson and St. Anselm's. Quote "Fuzzy" again at half time during the Clarkson game over the radio: "Clarkson definitely is having a night off."

Well, we will see you boys on the 7th of March. Be sure to bring plenty of crying towels along, because from where we sit now, it looks bad for the "Cats" mounts.

However, if you do win, we won't feel too bad, because sports over here is more or less a minor thing. We are here primarily for an education.

Radio Workshop Course Extended

by DON GIBBONS

Milton Slater, Production Manager of station W C A X, and instructor for the St. Michael's College Radio Workshop, plans to alter the course this semester to show the commercial side of radio.

MEN BEHIND SCENES

The success or failure of an entire program, or even an entire station, may often depend on the man behind the scene. Three of the most indispensable of these, are the Radio Manager, Radio Salesman, and Radio Advertiser.

It is Mr. Slater's intention to introduce each of these into the radio course, for the benefit of those who have an interest in radio, in other than a dramatic capacity. The plan, of course, must remain tentative until such time as it is found that student interest warrants the addition.

Such a change will be an addition, and will not in any way minimize the dramatic part of the course.

Notices will be posted about the time and place of the next meeting. These meetings will be arranged at the convenience of the majority. Those who are interested are asked to comply with these notices in order that organization may be as rapid as possible.

FR. PURTILL SPEAKS

This Friday evening at 8 the Very Reverend Father Purtill, Superior General of the Fathers of St. Edmund, recently returned from a visit to the South, will speak to the Mission Crusaders about the Southern Missions and the Mission at Gadsden, Alabama. This is the mission that the Crusaders have undertaken to support as their term project. All students are invited.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Congratulations to Prof. and Mrs. Edward F. Murphy and to Editor Emeritus and Mrs. Walter Hawver on the arrival of their first sons this week. Both already had two daughters.

"fasties" to blend in with the color of this evening of evenings.

A glittering crystal, revolving from the ceiling and throwing off a myriad of dancing reflected spots, drew many praises.

To the onlooker, the general scene was one of story book fashion --- the gaily bedecked walls, of pink and maroon, in lovely contrast with the rainbow mixture and pastel shades of the evening dresses, gave an Emperor's Waltz appearance to the festivities.

The numerous committees, along with the Outing Club, Prof. Cornelius Hannigan, and especially Art Fraser (for his decorative touch) should be heartily congratulated and extended the school's thanks for a job well done.

Lance

"The Moral Aspect In Fiction" will be the topic for forum discussion when the Writer's Club and Lance meet on Wednesday, Feb. 16, at 7:45 in the Library.

This will be the first regular meeting for the club in the second semester. A change was made to Wednesdays in order to avoid possible conflicts with THE MICHAELMAN and Debating meetings.

The Writer's Club and Lance will meet regularly bi-weekly, on Wednesdays, for the remainder of the semester.

Feloney Stars But Pucksters Drop Two

Despite a brilliant ten goal performance by wing Jimmy Feloney the St. Michael's hockey team dropped their first two tussles of the season last week as they were routed by Norwich 13-7 and edged by the Burlington All Stars 7-6 in the Winter Carnival affair.

The Norwich game was a wide open scoring fray with Feloney bagging five goals and Frank Young getting the other two. Adams paced the winners, driving home four goals past rookie goalie Bob White, who did a good job despite the high score.

In the Burlington All-Star game before the Winter Carnival crowd, the Purple "puckmen" blew a 4 to 1 lead losing in 1:10 of the sudden death period with Al Perreault (U.V.M.) getting the goal to make the final score 7-6.

Jim Feloney again turned in the "hat trick plus two" to lead the Mikemen with Jim Whitlock getting the other S.M. goal.

St. Michael's looked a bit weak on defense and ragged in its passing, but some good practice sessions are sure to bring about an improvement by the time the next contest rolls around.

sent a letter commending the students on their spirit but cautioning them that the best weapon against communism was a day by day attack against hate and prejudice in their own lives.

Two students, Forrest Rouelle and Ed Ryan planned the meeting, composed the letter and arranged for its delivery.

Those who missed the meeting can get copies of the letter in the library.

two days before the contest. Spirits were low at St. James Friday afternoon when the rumor got around that St. Williams had taken the prize with their Devil's Inn. When the final decision of the judges did come out the boys really let loose although they knew they deserved it all along.

The Carnival committee awarded the prize of a large cake.

After the basketball game Saturday night St. James held a party in the backroom of Red's Restaurant and a good time was had by all. The party served as a farewell for Ray Borzelleca, Jim Callaghan and Jack Walsh, who were leaving St. Michael's. Walsh got a purse with $90 as a token of student esteem.

Benefit Bingo Party Helps Burnt Out Antonovich Family

by DAN TARPEY

The good neighbor policy will be in effect Sunday evening, when the Antonovich family will be recipients of a benefit movie and party to be held in Austin Hall starting at 6:30 P.M.

Pauline

Mary Polworth, who portrays the diabolically possessed Mary Jobman, is a graduate of Cathedral High School and Trinity.

A member of all Trinity clubs while in college and former secretary of the Pen and Mike club, Mary has appeared in the Cathedral parish presentation of Pilate's Daughter for two years. She also appeared in the Trinity operetta "Chimes of Normandy;" and last year's radio play "The Importance of Being Earnest" presented during the May 8 weekend.

Traffic manager at station WJOY in Burlington, Mary is kept busy with manifold outside activities. She is President and co-founder of the Campion Players and also serves as corresponding secretary of the Trinity Alumnae Association.

Pauline Landry a native of Swanton, Vt., plays the cold but remorseful mother of Mary in "Kingdom of the Blind." Graduated from St. Anne's Academy and Trinity College, Pauline is now secretary to R. F. Thompson, President of Vermont Transit Co.

'CUM LAUDE' GRAD

Listed in the 1948 edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities," Pauline graduated cum laude and also served as senior class secretary.

Having appeared in "The Chimes of Normandy" last year and a former member of the Trinity Dramatic Society, Pauline is now associated with the Campion Players and serves as the Press correspondent for the Trinity Town Club.

Lenore Fleeman and Beverly Massung, the other female members of the cast, are both Trinity students.

Lenore, a junior, is a graduate of Montreat Junior College in Montreat, N.C., and last year was actively associated with the Summer Theatre group. Lee also is a member of the Pen and Mike Club and recently served as program chairman for the successful Blanche Yurka performance.

Beverly Massung, a sophomore, comes from West Hartford, Conn., where she graduated from Mt. St. Joseph Academy in 1947.

Taking active participation in high school dramatics, Beverly has appeared in "The Imaginary Invalid," "The Christmas Carol," and "The Merchant of Venice."

Male members of the "Kingdom of the Blind" cast are: Barney Thompson; Edward Ruest; Howie Lancour; Bill Heenehan; Bob Lilly; Vin Lawless; Bob Sullivan; Paul Mitchell; Dick Wall; and Bob Bonnette.

Lighting will be handled by Paul Heinig and Larry Nuccio while Jack Scully, Paul Lapointe, Denny Scanlon, Jake Shields and Jack Flynn are working with staging.

The play is under the direction of Prof. Henry G. Fairbanks.

A host of their friends from surrounding towns will be on hand for this affair.

Approximately three weeks ago, the Antonovich home, at 25 College Parkway, Winooski Park, was completely destroyed by fire, but fortunately their large chicken farm, the D & I Poultry Co. was preserved from the disaster.

Since their misfortune, the Antonovichs have resided in Milton. It is their sincere hope to build a new home in the Spring. The proceeds of the bingo party will be used for that purpose. Fr. Lyons has offered Austin Hall free for the party.

The party will be sponsored and directed by Mrs. Edward Companion of Winooski Park, and her committee namely: Miss Marion LaRicheliere, Mrs. Ronald Van Dusen, Mrs. Rene Dion, Mrs. George Jacobs, and Miss Varney.

FR. BOUCHER HELPS

Congratulations must be also extended to Fr. Maurice Boucher, who announced that the proceeds which ordinarily would go to the Mission Crusade, would be turned over to the Antonovich family. The movie that night will be given at 6:45 in the gym.

A donation of $.30 will be charged to outsiders, which will include the picture, "Jane Eyre," an entitlement to one card, and a chance for the door prize. The students will be charged the usual .25¢ for the movie, and will receive a card for one game, and a chance for the door prize.

There are many valuable prizes to be awarded, and a raffle of a table model radio, and a hand crocheted baby dress will take place. All bingo lovers are expected to rally over to Austin Hall Sunday night to make this a huge success. You might be a lucky winner.

Prof. Campbell Speaks To NFCCS Mon. Night

Under NFCCS auspices, Prof. Campbell will lecture Monday night, at 6:15 in Austin Hall on "Communism in Labor Unions."

The meeting is free and open to the student body. Walt Coon and Clem Ferris are planning the program with Jack Daly slated as parliamentarian.
